UD TO OFFER CEBS COURSES

DAYTON, Ohio -- Two courses that are part of the University of Dayton's Certified Employee Benefits Specialist Program are scheduled to start in September. A course on the contemporary legal environment of employee benefit plans begins at 6 p.m. on Monday, Sept. 27, and one on employee benefit concepts and medical care begins at 6 p.m. on Tuesday, Sept. 28.

The CEBS program is a 10-course curriculum designed to provide knowledge of the concepts and principles by which employee benefit plans are designed. The CEBS designation is attained by successfully completing the 10 courses and corresponding national tests. Two courses will be offered each semester and they can be taken as part of the CEBS program or individually.

For more information call UD's continuing education department at (513) 229-2347.
